

Protection Special Offers

Available until 31 January 2026

At Zurich, we believe that Life, Serious Illness, Income Protection, and Cancer Cover are essential covers. Ensuring loved ones and family members are looked after when unfortunate life events happen is incredibly important. But sometimes price gets in the way and an important decision from a client is postponed until a later time.

That's why we regularly offer special discounts so you can provide your clients with strong protection at very competitive prices.

Our special offers can be applied on the full premium without any upper limit and are also available on policies exercising Protection Continuation Options or Guaranteed Insurability Options.
