

Why choose Zurich for Income Protection?

1 Price – we offer great value with our Income Protection

In today's challenging environment, we believe that every euro counts – that's why our Income Protection pricing is highly competitive and provides your clients with excellent cover at highly competitive rates.

2 Flexibility – our solution is tailored to meet your clients unique needs

Whether it's Personal or Executive cover, different deferred periods, term, occupations – we offer your client options that suit them.

3 Rehabilitation – we help your client recover faster with comprehensive back-to-work services

Income Protection from Zurich is more than just a monthly income – we help clients get back on their feet, improving their recovery and wellbeing. We offer back-to-work services including physiotherapy and psychological support, or we may be able to pay for a specialist doctor when it will help the client avoid a long waiting list and get better faster. We will also support phased return to work, or if your client needs to return to lesser paying role.

4 Evolution – we offer your clients a cover that fits around their lives

With our Guaranteed Insurability Option – your client can, on certain life events like becoming a parent, getting married or enjoying a pay rise – increase their cover without providing additional evidence of health (subject to certain limits).

5 Expertise – we have 40 years of experience with Income Protection

Knowing that a successful claim is as important to your clients as it is to you, you can take comfort knowing that Zurich will support your clients when they need it the most.
