

Your child's future is your greatest investment

Every parent wants their child to succeed, and a great education is one of the best ways to help them thrive. But did you know the cost of school and university can quickly add up, often reaching tens of thousands of euro for just one child?

If you have more than one child, the expenses can grow even more. Planning ahead is the smartest way to make sure you're ready for whatever comes next.

With Zurich's Regular Savings Plan, you can start saving now and build a brighter future for your child. It's a simple, flexible way to help cover education costs - so you can focus on supporting their dreams, not worrying about the bills.

The average annual cost of education

Don't leave it too late to plan!

The cost of educating your child can be expensive irrespective of whether your child attends a private or a public school. The problem is that many parents get to grips with the costs when it's too late and end up having to fund everything out of day-to-day expenditure.

Remember, the mortgage and other utility bills you have today will still have to be paid when your child starts school. The only difference is you will be expected to manage those household costs on top of your child's education.

Primary Schools

It all starts here. Your child's first days at school are a big milestone. Their first day at school is also your first day of many years of (worthwhile) expense!

The average cost of sending a child to primary school each year is €1,615. The total cost for one child in primary school over 8 years amounts to an estimated €12,920.

Free fees, but the costs still stack up!

To give your child the best start in their adult life, you will need the finances to match their ambition. All "free-fees" third level institutions charge a mandatory student contribution of up to €3,000 per year for 2025/2026.*

Unfortunately, this student contribution is just one of the costs likely to be incurred when putting your child through third level education.

It's worth noting: The lifetime cost of education shown here does not include inflation, so future expenses may be higher than expected. In 2020 the lifetime cost for a third level student in student accommodation was €33,868. The cost in 2025 is €58,116 – that's an increase of 72% in just 5 years!

Something to think about...

It's clear to see that the cost of education is high. So, wouldn't it make sense to plan ahead and build up your savings year-on-year and benefit from compounding?

The table below illustrates just how much regular savings can grow with a Zurich Regular Savings plan. For example, if you saved the Government child benefit of €140 per month for 5 years (as at August 2025) from when your child was born, by the time they started school you could have built up savings of €9,400* in time to fund this crucial stage in their life.

	Savings fund after 5 years starting Primary School	Savings fund after 12 years starting Secondary School	Savings fund after 18 years starting 3rd Level
Regular contributions of €140 per month*	€9,400	€27,400	€48,440
Lump sum of €10,000 & regular contributions of €140 per month*	€20,565	€40,835	€64,074

A gross investment return of 5.5% per annum is assumed in the above calculations based on the Prisma 4 fund. On encashment, partial encashment, assignment, death or on each 8th anniversary of the policy, tax is deducted on gains made. The figures shown allow for the deduction of tax (currently 41%). Contribution increases of 3% per annum are assumed.

*An annual management charge of 1.35% and an allocation rate of 101% apply based on Zurich product profile offerings as the standard savings product structure. A 1% government insurance levy applies on all contributions but may change in the future.
