

Protect you and your family from the risk of serious illness

Nobody likes to think about the risk of serious illness, but unfortunately, for many people it can have far reaching consequences.

If you suffer from a serious illness such as Cancer, a Heart Attack, or a Stroke, it could prevent you from working and you could find yourself struggling financially at a time when money should be the last thing on your mind.

Take a moment to consider the financial problems a serious illness could bring to you and your family. Ask yourself:

- Will I have the money to help me access the best medical care and assist my recovery?
- Could my employment and income be impacted by a serious illness?
- Will I have enough money to pay my mortgage or rent every month?
- What about my family? If I am unfortunate to suffer from a serious illness, could this impact their day to day living, education and future?

That's why you should consider protecting you and your family with Serious Illness Cover from Zurich.

What is serious illness cover?

Serious Illness Cover is a type of insurance policy that pays out a cash lump sum if you get one of the many serious illnesses covered by the plan – illnesses such as Cancer, a Heart Attack, or a Stroke*.

A cash lump sum paid to you could help remove some of the financial and emotional stress associated with a serious illness – to enable you to take the time off work, to help pay for specialist treatment and/or even to help cover day-to-day household bills such as childcare.

Serious Illness cover can be set up so that it covers both you and your partner – and if you have children, they are also automatically covered should they suffer a serious illness*. You decide how much financial cover you need, and the cost of the plan is based on criteria such as your age, smoker status, and medical history.

* Claims are subject to policy terms and conditions.
Please see the policy document for the full definition of illnesses.

Even a little cover can stretch a long way

Even a small amount of serious illness cover can go a long way. If you needed €2,500 every month (€30,000 in a year) to cover your household expenses, the good news is that it doesn't have to cost the earth. The table below shows how far even a small amount of cover could go and the monthly cost.
